

Do you:

- Support building an anti-hunger movement in Colorado?
- Enjoy building relationships with volunteers, donors, and community members?
- Gain excitement from inspiring others to join the mission?
- Enjoy mentoring others and working as part of a team?
- Approach your work with a racial equity lens?

Metro Caring works with our community to meet people's immediate need for nutritious food while building a movement to sustainably address the root causes of hunger. Metro Caring is a leader and model for food sovereignty and anti-hunger work for Denver and the nation. We believe access to nutritious food is a right, not a privilege. Using a multifaceted approach, Metro Caring is innovative in solving problems related to hunger, with programming offered in Healthy Foods Access, Nutrition Education, and Community Activation.

As a high-capacity leader, the Head of Development will contribute to Metro Caring's mission by managing the overall vision, strategic priorities, and fundraising operations in the Development department. The Head of Development is responsible for leading the fundraising team in meeting or exceeding Metro Caring's annual revenue projections from its core funding streams - individuals, private foundations/government, corporations, and faith partners - while maintaining a significant number of high-level prospects in their portfolio. This is a management position that will oversee the Development department and directly supervise the Grants and Foundations Relations Manager, Development Manager, and Communications & Marketing Specialist.

REQUIRED QUALIFICATIONS/SKILLS/ABILITIES

- Outgoing personality and ability to initiate and enjoy direct communication with donors and prospects
- 7+ years experience in cultivating, soliciting, and stewarding corporate and individual donors, experience in foundation fundraising a plus
- Skilled at establishing and cultivating strong relationships with diverse constituents
- Strong storyteller and public speaker; able to make emotional connections to mission and communicate impact and results in a compelling fashion
- Excellent written and oral communication, with a high level of sensitivity for propriety and confidentiality
- Proactive, self-motivated and highly accountable with the ability to critically think and deliver results in a fast-paced, collaborative, team culture
- Task-oriented with an excellent sense of priority, analytical thinking, logic and objectivity
- Highly organized with a strong attention to detail and able to handle multiple sensitive, confidential, and important issues simultaneously while responding to unanticipated developments
- Flexible, with the capacity to work under tight deadlines and have excellent follow-through skills
- Ability to motivate and manage others, working in a team environment, and ensure ongoing individual professional development
- Highly proficient with Microsoft Office products and database management software, Salesforce a plus
- Embodies Metro Caring's core values to pursue equity, champion the mission, rise together, find the joy, think outside the box, be brave and own it
- Understanding of professional culture and norms
- Warm and welcoming demeanor to all

Note: Research suggests that women and BIPOC individuals may self-select out of opportunities if they don't meet 100% of the job requirements. We encourage anyone who believes they have the skills and the drive necessary to succeed here to apply for this role

To apply, please submit a resume and cover letter to job@metrocaring.org with "Head of Development" in the subject line, and title your documents "First Name_Last Name_HOD_Resume" and "First Name_Last Name_HOD_Cover Letter." Please use your cover letter to communicate why you are excited to work to help build an anti-hunger movement in Colorado, highlight any fundraising experience and success, and highlight any of the above skills, abilities, and experience you have. This position will be filled on an ongoing basis. Applications will be accepted until positions are filled; however, priority will be given to those applicants who submit their materials before 5:00 PM MT on January 5, 2024

Incomplete applications will not be considered.
